

NOTICE TO ALL PLAINTIFF CLASS MEMBERS IN MORROW et al v. CITY OF TENAHA, et al, NO. 2-08-CV-288-JRG UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE EASTERN DISTRICT OF TEXAS MARSHALL DIVISION OF MOTIONS FOR AWARD OF INTERIM ATTORNEY'S FEES

TO: All class members, to wit, person who (1) are, or appear to be, members of racial or ethnic minority groups and those in their company, and; (2) were, or will be, traveling in, through, or near Tenaha, Texas, at any time after November 1, 2006, and; (3) were, or are, subject to being stopped by one or more Defendants for an alleged traffic violation.

You are hereby notified that on March 17, 2021, a motion for award of interim attorney's fees and expenses for Plaintiffs' counsel was filed with the Court, Doc. No. 415 in this case. The motion seeks compensation for Plaintiff class counsel's work and expenses related to this case incurred between April 1, 2020, and December 31, 2020. On August 15, 2025, another motion for award of interim attorney's fees and expenses was filed by Plaintiffs' Counsel with the Court, Doc. No. 453 in this case. The motion seeks compensation for Plaintiffs' class Counsel's work and expenses related in this case from January 1, 2021, through the conclusion of this litigation. The award sought in each motion would not diminish any benefits to members of the class.

On or before 20 days from the posting of this Notice, any plaintiff class member wishing to comment or object to the Motion must do so in writing, referencing the name and number of this case as listed above, and filed with the U.S. District Court for the Eastern District of Texas, Room 125, 100 East Houston Street, Marshall, Texas 75670. After that deadline the Court will proceed to consider and act on the Motion without further notice to the class.

This notice is intended to comply with an Order of the Court entered on August 29, 2025, Doc. No. 455 in this case.

Any questions or information about this notice can be requested from Plaintiffs' class counsel.
