

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF GEORGIA BRUNSWICK DIVISION

Mario Alexander GUEVARA,

Petitioner,

v.

Warden, Folkston ICE Processing Center, et al.,

Respondents,

CASE NO. 2:25-cv-00104-LGW-BWC

DECLARATION OF SUPERVISORY DETENTION AND DEPORTATION OFFICER WANICK AMBROISE

I, Wanick Ambrose, declare as follows:

1. I have been employed with the U.S. Department of Homeland Security (DHS), Immigration and Customs Enforcement, Enforcement and Removal Operations (“ICE/ERO”) since September 2007. I am currently a Supervisory Detention and Deportation Officer (SDDO); I have held that title since April 2025. I am currently assigned to the Folkston ICE Processing Center (FIPC) falling under the portfolio/supervision of the Atlanta, Georgia office for ERO.
2. In my capacity as SDDO, I am familiar with the case involving Mario Alexander Guevara (“Petitioner”), whose alien registration number is A088-402-287. I have reviewed the relevant documents from the Petitioner’s alien file (“A-file”) and other official government records related to Petitioner’s removal proceedings and, unless otherwise stated, this declaration is based on that review.
3. The Petitioner is currently detained by ICE/ERO at FIPC under the authority of section 236(a)(1) of the Immigration and Nationality Act (INA).
4. The Petitioner is a native and citizen of El Salvador. On or about June 23, 2008, DHS issued a Notice to Appear (NTA) following the referral Petitioner’s application for relief from removal to the Immigration Judge. The NTA charged the Petitioner as removable under INA § 237(a)(1)(B). The NTA was initially filed with the immigration court in Arlington, Virginia. The Petitioner appeared with counsel on September 30, 2008, and conceded service of the NTA, the factual allegations and removability. At a later hearing, venue was changed to the immigration court in Atlanta, Georgia based on the Petitioner's address.

5. On September 22, 2010, the Petitioner appeared with counsel and affirmed his intention to file an application for relief. The matter was set for a final hearing.
6. On September 27, 2011, the Petitioner appeared with counsel for a hearing on the merits of his application for relief. Testimony was not completed at that time, and the matter was continued to December 1, 2011, for additional testimony. The matter was continued again for additional testimony to June 21, 2012. The Petitioner appeared with counsel on June 21, 2012, and the Immigration Judge denied his application for relief but granted voluntary departure. See Exhibit A, Immigration Judge decision dated June 21, 2012.
7. The Petitioner reserved appeal. The Petitioner filed a Notice of Appeal with the Board of Immigration Appeals (BIA) on or about July 17, 2012. Following a joint motion from the parties, the BIA administratively closed the Petitioner's case. See Exhibit B, Administrative Closure Order dated December 17, 2012.
8. On June 14, 2025, ERO encountered the Petitioner at the Dekalb County, Georgia jail. See Exhibit C, Form I-213 dated June 14, 2025.
9. The Petitioner entered ICE/ERO custody on or about June 18, 2025 and was transferred to FIPC.
10. On July 3, 2025, the Petitioner was transferred to a local law enforcement agency to resolve pending charges. See Exhibit D, Criminal Arrest Warrants;
11. The same day, July 3, 2025, the Petitioner re-entered ICE/ERO custody. To date, Petitioner has been detained in ICE/ERO custody for 54 days.
12. On or about June 27, 2025, DHS filed a Motion to Recalendar the Petitioner's appeal with the BIA. To date, the motion, and therefore the Petitioner's appeal, remains pending with the BIA.

Pursuant to Title 28, U.S. Code Section 1746, I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct to the best of my knowledge, this 26th day of August 2025.

ON BEHALF OF DHS: RANDALL W. DUNCAN, ASSISTANT CHIEF COUNSEL

ORAL DECISION OF THE IMMIGRATION JUDGE

PROCEDURAL BACKGROUND

This case came before the Court as the result of Notices to Appear that were issued by the Department of Homeland Security. The charging documents allege that each Respondent is a native and citizen of El Salvador and that each is removable from the United States pursuant to Section 237(a)(1)(B) of the Immigration and Nationality Act. The Respondents have each admitted the factual allegations in the Notices to Appear, and each has conceded removability. In light of the foregoing, the Court finds by clear and convincing evidence that the Respondents are each removable from the United States as charged. The Court designates El Salvador as the country of removal should that become necessary.

The lead Respondent, Mario Guevara, filed an application [REDACTED]

██████████ Respondents seek voluntary departure as an alternate form of relief.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that each Respondent's application for voluntary departure be, and hereby is, GRANTED. Respondents are granted voluntary departure up to and including August 20, 2012, which is 60 days from today upon the posting of a bond of $500 within five business days with an alternate Order of Removal to El Salvador.

WARNING TO RESPONDENTS: Failure to leave the United States as agreed means that you could be removed from this country, you may have to pay a civil penalty of between $1,000 to $5,000 and you will be ineligible for 10 years to come from receiving cancellation of removal, adjustment of status, change of status, voluntary departure or relief under the registry provisions.

The Respondents have reserved the right to appeal. The deadline for filing an appeal is July 23, 2012.

If Respondents file an appeal, they are hereby advised
