

THE HONORABLE RICHARD A. JONES

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
WESTERN DISTRICT OF WASHINGTON AT SEATTLE

ABDIQAFAR WAGAFE, et al., on behalf of themselves and others similarly situated,

Plaintiffs,

v.

DONALD TRUMP, President of the United States, et al.,

Defendants.

No. 17-cv-00094 RAJ

STIPULATED PROTECTIVE ORDER

1 PURPOSES AND LIMITATIONS

Discovery in this action is likely to involve production of confidential, for official use only, law enforcement sensitive, and/or private information for which special protection may be warranted. Accordingly, the parties hereby stipulate to and petition the Court to enter the following Stipulated Protective Order (“Order”). The parties acknowledge that this Order is consistent with Local Civil Rule 26(c). It does not confer blanket protection on all disclosures or responses to discovery; the protection it affords from public disclosure and use extends only to the limited information or items that are entitled to confidential treatment under the applicable legal principles, and it does not presumptively entitle parties to file confidential information under seal.

2 CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION

3 “Confidential Information” shall include the following types of information produced or 4 otherwise exchanged:

- 5 a) an individual’s social security number, personal identification numbers, tax 6 identification number, alien registration number (“A number”), passport 7 numbers, driver license numbers, and any similar identifiers assigned to an 8 individual by the federal government, a state or local government of the United 9 States, or the government of any other country;
- 10 b) any other information that, either alone or in association with other related 11 information, would allow the identification of the particular individual(s) to 12 whom the information relates;
- 13 c) birth dates;
- 14 d) information relating to the basis on which Defendants have identified any 15 individual as a “National Security Concern” under CARRP and any 16 information bearing on why an individual’s immigration application was or is 17 being processed pursuant to CARRP;
- 18 e) information relating to the content or status of an individual’s immigration 19 benefit application, to the extent that information is linked with the applicant’s 20 identity;
- 21 f) any information that is protected or restricted from disclosure by state or 22 federal statute or regulation, but which the Court may order produced, such as 23 information protected by the Privacy Act, 5 U.S.C. § 552a, and other statutes or 24 regulations that may prevent disclosure of specific information related to 25 noncitizens, including but not limited to: 8 U.S.C. §§ 1160(b)(5), (6); 26 1186A(c)(4), 1202(f), 1254a(c)(6), 1255a(c)(4), (5); 1304(b), and 1367(a)(2), (b), (c), (d); 22 U.S.C. § 7105(c)(1)(C); 8 C.F.R. §§ 208.6, 210.2(e), 214.11(e), 1 214.14(e), 216.5(e)(3)(viii), 236.6, 244.16, 245a.2(t), 245a.3(n), 245a.21, 2 1003.27(b)-(d), 1003.46, and 1208.6, which otherwise could subject either 3 party to civil or criminal penalties or other sanctions in the event of 4 unauthorized disclosure;

5 g) any information that is (i) a trade secret or other confidential research, 6 development, or commercial information, as such terms are used in Federal 7 Rule of Civil Procedure 26(c)(1)(G), or (ii) non-public proprietary information 8 purchased or obtained from a private entity;

9 h) photographs of any person, including but not limited to any photographs of any 10 named Plaintiff, unnamed class member, or their family/friends;

11 i) names of any individuals known to be under 18 years of age; 12 j) addresses and telephone numbers;

13 k) any sensitive, but unclassified, information to include limited official use or for 14 official use only information;

15 l) any information compiled for law enforcement purposes, including but not 16 limited to, investigative files and techniques related to the integrity of the legal 17 immigration system, suspected or known fraud, criminal activity, public safety, 18 or national security, and investigative referrals;

19 m) any information not in the public domain, or if in the public domain, 20 information that is improperly in the public domain;

21 n) bank account numbers, credit card numbers, and other financial information 22 that can be specifically linked to an individual's or entity's financial account;

23 o) medical information, such as medical records, medical treatment, and medical 24 diagnoses; and

25 p) any other personally identifiable information identified in Federal Rule of Civil 26 Procedure 5.2 and Local Civil Rule 5.2(a).

1 If a designating party determines that information not described in this paragraph should be 2 designated Confidential Information, the parties shall negotiate the appropriateness of that 3 designation in good faith and endeavor to resolve any dispute prior to the production of that 4 information. If the parties are unable to resolve the dispute within 14 calendar days, the 5 designating party shall designate the material as containing Confidential Information and 6 produce it. The receiving party can then challenge the confidentiality designation(s) 7 pursuant to Section 6 of this Order.

8 Information that has been made public under the authority of a party, aggregate information 9 that concerns class members, and information that does not permit the identification of the 10 particular individuals to whom the information relates are not considered Confidential 11 Information, unless otherwise covered under of the categories identified above.

12 3 SCOPE

13 The protections conferred by this Order cover not only those portions of any documents 14 containing Confidential Information (as defined above), but also (1) any information copied 15 or extracted from those portions of any documents containing Confidential Information; (2) 16 all copies, excerpts, summaries, or compilations of Confidential Information; and (3) any 17 testimony, conversations, or presentations by parties or their counsel that might reveal 18 Confidential Information. However, the protections conferred by this Order do not cover 19 information that is properly in the public domain or becomes part of the public domain 20 through trial or otherwise.

21 4 ACCESS TO AND USE OF CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION

22 4.1 Basic Principles. A receiving party may use Confidential Information that is 23 disclosed or produced by another party or by a non-party in connection with this case only 24 for pursuing, defending, or attempting to settle this litigation. It shall not be disseminated 25 outside the confines of this case, nor shall it be included in any pleading, record, or 26 document that is not filed under seal with the Court or redacted in accordance with 1 applicable law. Confidential Information may be disclosed only to the categories of 2 persons and under the conditions described in this Order. Confidential Information must be 3 stored and maintained by a receiving party at a location and in a secure manner that ensures 4 that access is limited to the persons authorized under this Order.

5 4.2 Disclosure of Confidential Information or Items. Unless otherwise ordered by the 6 Court or permitted in writing by the designating party, a receiving party may disclose any 7 Confidential Information only to:

- 8 a) Defendants, Defendants' employees to whom disclosure is reasonably 9 necessary for this litigation, and named Plaintiffs;
- 10 b) Defendants' counsel in this action and any support staff and other 11 employees of such counsel assisting in this action with an appropriate 12 need to know. If any of Defendants' counsel, support staff, or other 13 employees cease to represent Defendants in this action for any reason, 14 such counsel shall no longer have access to or be authorized to receive 15 any Confidential Information;
- 16 c) Plaintiffs' counsel in this action and any support staff and other 17 employees of such counsel assisting in this action with an appropriate 18 need to know. If any of Plaintiffs' counsel cease to represent Plaintiffs 19 or class members in this action for any reason, such counsel shall no 20 longer have access to or be authorized to receive any Confidential 21 Information;
- 22 d) experts and consultants to whom disclosure is reasonably necessary for 23 this litigation and who have signed the "Acknowledgment and 24 Agreement to Be Bound" (Exhibit A);
- 25 e) any other person mutually authorized by both parties' counsel to 26 examine such information;

- 1 f) the Court, court personnel, and court reporters and their staff;
- 2 g) copy or imaging or data processing services retained by counsel to assist
- 3 in this litigation, provided that counsel for the party retaining the copy or
- 4 imaging or data processing service instructs the service not to disclose
- 5 any Confidential Information to third parties and to immediately return
- 6 all originals and copies of any Confidential Information;
- 7 h) during their depositions, witnesses in the action to whom disclosure is
- 8 reasonably necessary and who have signed the “Acknowledgment and
- 9 Agreement to Be Bound” (Exhibit A), unless otherwise agreed by the
- 10 designating party or ordered by the Court. Pages of transcribed
- 11 deposition testimony or exhibits to depositions that reveal Confidential
- 12 Information must be separately bound by the court reporter and may not
- 13 be disclosed to anyone except as permitted under this Order; and
- 14 i) the author or recipient of a document containing Confidential
- 15 Information or a custodian or other person who otherwise possessed or
- 16 knew the Confidential Information.

17 4.3 Use Of Information Subject To Protective Order. Use of any information or 18 documents subject to this Protective Order, including all information derived therefrom, 19 shall be restricted to use in this litigation (subject to the applicable rules of evidence and 20 subject to the confidentiality of such materials being maintained) and shall not be used by

21 anyone subject to the terms of this agreement, for any purpose outside of this litigation or

22 any other proceeding between the parties. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing

23 sentence, no one subject to this Protective Order shall use Confidential Information

24 obtained in this litigation to retaliate against, intimidate, report or refer an individual to any 25 governmental authorities, discriminate against any individual in any manner, or harass any

26 other party or witness, relatives of any other party or witness, including domestic partners

1 of a party or witness; or any individuals associated with the parties in any way.
2 Notwithstanding the foregoing, nothing in this Protective Order supersedes existing 3 independent statutory, law enforcement, national security, or regulatory obligations 4 imposed on a Party, and this Protective Order does not prohibit or absolve the Parties from 5 complying with such other obligations. Nothing in this Protective Order shall limit or in 6 any way restrict the use of information obtained outside of this litigation.

7 4.4 Filing Confidential Information. Before filing Confidential Information with the 8 Court, or discussing or referencing such material in court filings, the filing party shall 9 confer with the designating party (where practical, at least seven days prior to the intended 10 filing date) to determine whether the designating party will remove the confidential 11 designation, whether the document can be redacted, or whether a motion to seal or 12 stipulation and proposed order is warranted. Local Civil Rule 5(g) sets forth the procedures 13 that must be followed and the standards that will be applied when a party seeks permission 14 from the Court to file material under seal.

15 5 DESIGNATING PROTECTED MATERIAL

16 5.1 Exercise of Restraint and Care in Designating Material for Protection. Each party or 17 non-party that designates information or items for protection under this Order must take 18 care to limit any such designation to specific material that qualifies under the appropriate 19 standards. The designating party must designate for protection only those parts of material, 20 documents, items, or oral or written communications that qualify, so that other portions of 21 the material, documents, items, or communications for which protection is not warranted 22 are not swept unjustifiably within the ambit of this Order.

23 Mass, indiscriminate, or routinized designations are prohibited. Designations that are 24 shown to be clearly unjustified or that have been made for an improper purpose (e.g., to 25 unnecessarily encumber or delay the case development process or to impose unnecessary 26 expenses and burdens on other parties) expose the designating party to sanctions.

1 If it comes to a designating party's attention that information or items that it designated for 2 protection do not qualify for protection, the designating party must promptly notify all other 3 parties that it is withdrawing the mistaken designation.

4 5.2 Manner and Timing of Designations. Except as otherwise provided in this Order 5 (see, e.g., second paragraph of section 5.2(a) below), or as otherwise stipulated or ordered, 6 disclosure or discovery material that qualifies for protection under this Order must be 7 clearly so designated before or when the material is disclosed or produced.

8 a) Information in documentary form (e.g., paper or electronic documents 9 and deposition exhibits, but excluding transcripts of depositions or other 10 pretrial or trial proceedings): The designating party must affix the words 11 "CONFIDENTIAL PURSUANT TO PROTECTIVE ORDER" to each 12 page that contains Confidential Information. If only a portion or portions 13 of the material on a page qualifies for protection, the producing party 14 also must clearly identify the protected portion(s) (e.g., by making 15 appropriate markings in the margins).

16 b) Electronic Information Not Amenable to Marking Document. For 17 electronic information that is provided in native form or a format that is 18 not amenable to visible endorsement on the image, the file name(s) shall 19 begin with "CONFIDENTIAL PURSUANT TO PROTECTIVE 20 ORDER." The media on which the Confidential Information is provided 21 (e.g., CD, DVD, external hard drive) also must be and remain plainly 22 labeled with "CONFIDENTIAL PURSUANT TO PROTECTIVE 23 ORDER" unless and until the protection of the data within the media is 24 removed. Any copying or transferring of electronic files that are 25 designated as Confidential Material must be done in a manner that 26 maintains the protection for all copies, including, but not limited to, in

1 the filename(s) and the location where the copies are stored and users' 2 access thereto.

3 c) Testimony given in deposition or in other pretrial or trial proceedings:

4 The parties must identify on the record, during the deposition, hearing, or 5 other proceeding, all protected testimony, without prejudice to their right 6 to so designate other testimony after reviewing the transcript. Any party 7 or non-party may, within 30 days after receiving a deposition transcript, 8 designate portions of the transcript, or exhibits thereto, as confidential.

9 The entire deposition transcript (including any exhibits not previously 10 produced in discovery in this Action) shall be treated as Confidential 11 Information under this Protective Order until the expiration of the above-12 referenced 30-day period for designation, except that the deponent (and 13 his or her counsel, if any) may review the transcript of his or her own 14 deposition during the 30-day period subject to this Protective Order and 15 the requirement of executing the certification attached as Exhibit A.

16 After designation of Confidential Material is made, the following shall 17 be placed on the front of the original and each copy of a deposition 18 transcript containing Confidential Information: "CONFIDENTIAL 19 PURSUANT TO PROTECTIVE ORDER." If the deposition was 20 filmed, both the recording storage medium (i.e. CD or DVD) and its 21 container shall be labeled "CONFIDENTIAL PURSUANT TO 22 PROTECTIVE ORDER."

23 d) For interrogatory answers and responses to requests for admissions, 24 designation of Confidential Information shall be made by placing within 25 each interrogatory answer or response to requests for admission asserted 26

1 to contain Confidential Information the following: “CONFIDENTIAL 2 PURSUANT TO PROTECTIVE ORDER”.

3 e) Other tangible items: The producing party must affix in a prominent 4 place on the exterior of the container or containers in which the 5 information or item is stored the words “CONFIDENTIAL PURSUANT 6 TO PROTECTIVE ORDER.” If only a portion or portions of the 7 information or item warrant protection, the producing party, to the extent 8 practicable, shall identify the protected portion(s).

9 5.3 Inadvertent Failures to Designate. If a party inadvertently fails to designate material 10 as Confidential Information at the time of production, it shall take reasonable steps to notify 11 all receiving persons of its failure within five business days of discovery. The producing 12 party shall promptly supply all receiving persons with new copies of any documents 13 bearing corrected confidentiality designations, and the receiving party shall destroy the 14 original materials, and certify in writing to the producing party that such information has 15 been destroyed.

16 6 CHALLENGING CONFIDENTIALITY DESIGNATIONS

17 6.1 Timing of Challenges. Any party or non-party may challenge a designation of 18 confidentiality at any time. Unless a prompt challenge to a designating party’s 19 confidentiality designation is necessary to avoid foreseeable, substantial unfairness, 20 unnecessary economic burdens, or a significant disruption or delay of the litigation, a party 21 does not waive its right to challenge a confidentiality designation by electing not to mount a 22 challenge promptly after the original designation is disclosed.

23 6.2 Meet and Confer. The parties must attempt to resolve any dispute regarding 24 confidential designations without court involvement. Any motion regarding confidential 25 designations or for a protective order must include a certification, in the motion or in a 26 declaration or affidavit, that the movant has engaged in a good faith meet and confer

1 conference with other affected parties in an effort to resolve the dispute without court 2 action. The certification must list the date, manner, and participants to the conference. A 3 good faith effort to confer requires a face-to-face meeting or a telephone conference.

4 6.3 Judicial Intervention. If the parties cannot resolve a challenge without court 5 intervention, the challenging party may file and serve a motion to withdraw confidentiality 6 under Local Civil Rule 7 (and in compliance with Local Civil Rule 5(g), if applicable). The 7 burden of persuasion in any such motion shall be on the designating party. Frivolous 8 challenges, and those made for an improper purpose (e.g., to harass or impose unnecessary 9 expenses and burdens on other parties) may expose the challenging party to sanctions. All 10 parties shall continue to maintain the material in question as confidential until the Court 11 rules on the challenge.

12 7 PROTECTED MATERIAL SUBPOENAED OR ORDERED PRODUCED IN 13 OTHER LITIGATION

14 If a party is served with a subpoena or a court order issued in other litigation that compels 15 disclosure of any information or items designated in this action as “CONFIDENTIAL 16 PURSUANT TO PROTECTIVE ORDER,” that party must:

- 17 a) promptly notify the designating party in writing and include a copy of the 18 subpoena or court order;
- 19 b) promptly notify in writing the party who caused the subpoena or order to issue 20 in the other litigation that some or all of the material covered by the subpoena or 21 order is subject to this Order and provide a copy of this Order with that 22 notification;
- 23 c) cooperate with respect to all reasonable procedures sought to be pursued by the 24 designating party or parties whose Confidential Information may be affected, 25 including objecting and seeking a protective order in the litigation in which the 26 subpoena or order issued; and

1 d) decline to produce the Confidential Information if an objection has been made 2 until the objection has been resolved unless disclosure, dissemination, or 3 transmission is required by law or court order. Any person, entity, or 4 organization who receives Confidential Information shall abide by all terms and 5 conditions set forth herein unless otherwise permitted by court order.

6 8 UNAUTHORIZED DISCLOSURE OF PROTECTED MATERIAL

7 If a receiving party learns that, by inadvertence or otherwise, the party has disclosed 8 Confidential Information to any person or in any circumstance not authorized under this 9 Order, the receiving party must immediately:

- 10 a) notify in writing the designating party of the unauthorized disclosure(s); 11 b) use best efforts to retrieve all unauthorized copies of the protected material; 12 c) inform the person or persons to whom unauthorized disclosures were made of all 13 the terms of this Order; and 14 d) request that such person or persons execute the “Acknowledgment and 15 Agreement to Be Bound” that is attached hereto as Exhibit A.

16 9 INADVERTENT PRODUCTION OF PRIVILEGED OR OTHERWISE
17 PROTECTED MATERIAL

18 When a producing party gives notice to receiving parties that certain inadvertently produced 19 material is subject to a claim of privilege or other protection, the obligations of the 20 receiving parties are those set forth in Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 26(b)(5)(B). This 21 provision is not intended to modify whatever procedure may be established in an e-22 discovery order or order that provides for production without prior privilege review. Parties 23 shall confer on an appropriate non-waiver order under Federal Rule of Evidence 502.

24 10 NON-TERMINATION AND RETURN OF DOCUMENTS

25 Within 60 days after the termination of this action, including all appeals, each receiving 26 party shall destroy all Confidential Information obtained from another party in its 1 possession, custody, or control. The parties shall agree upon appropriate methods of 2 destruction.

3 Notwithstanding this provision, counsel are entitled to retain one archival copy of all 4 documents filed with the Court; trial, deposition, and hearing transcripts; correspondence; 5 deposition and trial exhibits; expert reports; attorney work product; and consultant and 6 expert work product, even if such materials contain Confidential Information, provided that 7 such material is and remains clearly marked to reflect that it contains Confidential 8 Information, and such counsel maintain the confidential nature of the discovery, as set forth 9 in this Order. Notwithstanding the foregoing, nothing in this Order shall be construed to 10 supersede any party's independent obligation to maintain records in accordance with the 11 Federal Records Act or other statutory or regulatory record-keeping requirements.

12 The confidentiality obligations imposed by this Order shall remain in effect until a 13 designating party agrees otherwise in writing or a court orders otherwise.

14 11 MISCELLANEOUS

15 11.1 Enforceability Upon Signing. By signing the Order, the parties agree to be bound 16 by its terms unless and until those terms are modified by order of the Court.

17 11.2 Right to Further Relief. Nothing in this Order abridges the right of any party to seek 18 its modification by the Court in the future.

19 11.3 Right to Assert Other Objections. By stipulating to entry of this Order, no party 20 waives any right it otherwise would have to object to disclosing or producing any 21 information or item on any ground not addressed in this Order. Similarly, no party waives 22 any right to object on any ground to use in evidence of any of the material covered by this 23 Order.

24 11.4 Effect of Order. This Order shall constitute a court order authorizing disclosure of 25 information designated as confidential, subject to the protections described herein, for 26 purposes of the Privacy Act, 5 U.S.C. § 552a(b)(11) (authorizing disclosure pursuant to the 1 order of a court of competent jurisdiction) and any other state or federal statute or 2 regulation that provides for disclosure pursuant to court order.

3 IT IS SO STIPULATED, THROUGH COUNSEL OF RECORD.

PURSUANT TO STIPULATION, IT IS SO ORDERED.

DATED: August 18, 2017

 The Honorable Richard A. Jones
 United States District Judge

EXHIBIT A

ACKNOWLEDGMENT AND AGREEMENT TO BE BOUND

I, _____ [print or type full name], of _____ [print or type full address], declare under penalty of perjury that I have read in its entirety and understand the Stipulated Protective Order that was issued by the United States District Court for the Western District of Washington on [date] in the case of Wagafe, et al. v.
Trump, et al., No. 17-cv-00094 RAJ. I agree to comply with and to be bound by all the terms of this Stipulated Protective Order and I understand and acknowledge that failure to so comply could expose me to sanctions and punishment in the nature of contempt. I solemnly promise that I will not disclose in any manner any information or item that is subject to this Stipulated Protective Order to any person or entity except in strict compliance with the provisions of this Order.

I further agree to submit to the jurisdiction of the United States District Court for the Western District of Washington for the purpose of enforcing the terms of this Stipulated Protective Order, even if such enforcement proceedings occur after termination of this action.
